Reaping the fruit of present day replacement theology.

One of the sure signs of End Time theology as described by Jesus Christ and Paul the Apostle was, “Men will turn away from the truth, to men’s misguided ideas and doctrines of demons.” This trend is accelerating more every year. It is happening because the Church has abandoned the most important command Jesus ever gave to the Church.

In Matthew 22:36-38, Jesus was asked: “What is the greatest commandment?”

Please note, Jesus didn’t say “confess prosperity; or start political struggles; or attend more conferences; or join a denomination,” Instead, His answer was very concise. In His eyes, this one commandment surpassed all of the above written Church activities. He knew if we would just obey this commandment completely, we would be victorious over every other trial and test in our lives.

Please notice; Jesus didn’t pontificate about some deep theological exegesis, only a select few could understand. Instead, He said: “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God (In this passage, Jesus used two names of God to clarify He was speaking of the ONLY true God in all of creation: Yaweh, and Eloheka=the only God who can make and keep covenants.) with ALL thy heart, and with ALL thy soul, and with ALL thy mind. This is the first and great commandment.”

Please notice the progression Jesus used to teach this truth. He first said: “Heart” Proverbs 23:7 “As a man thinketh in his heart, SO IS HE.” Again, Jesus said: in Matthew 12:34; “Out of the abundance of the HEART, the mouth speaketh.”

Secondly He said: “SOUL.” “Soul” involves your whole personality, your will and emotions. Third, He said “Mind,” your planner & evaluation of daily life. Jesus said I want you to love God beyond all else. A simple concise answer.

Now, a simple concise question: DO WE? Please, don't equivocate; don't rationalize, don't minimize the complete reach of this question. A simple "yes or no" will do. In Luke 14:26-33, Jesus commands this same truth, defining minutely what it involves. In this passage, He repeats one requirement: "count the cost." If you declare me as Lord & Savior, you will be so committed to me and my kingdom, your feelings, comparatively, for anything or anyone else will be as extreme as love and hatred. If you "keep your life, you will lose it, but if you lose your life for My sake, and the gospel, you will save it." Mk 8:35

Question: What or who do you truly love today with all of your heart, soul, strength and mind?

Paul and Silas were beaten and thrown into prison and "suffered the loss of all things."

Did they have a pity party? No; a praise party, because Paul took all of his past life, his possessions, his reputation, his forevermore relationships and "counted them as dung." Why? Paul determined to glory ONLY in the cross, by which he was "crucified to the world, and the world to him."

With all the warnings and promises of "the end times," to whom & what are we clinging? Have we forgotten "naked came I into the world and naked I shall go out:" NO exceptions! What are we glorying in? Our work, our education; our retirement; our religious reputation; our Church; or in the cross of Christ?

This is a vital question for "the night cometh when no man can work" John 9:4 Says, conditions will be so difficult, it will be impossible to work, When Lot lived in Sodom we are told "it vexed his righteous soul daily for the wickedness around him.:" Lot saw the wickedness but won no souls in all the years he lived in Sodom.

The present administration has changed our nation so violently that our moral standards are disintegrating at an unprecedented rate. Abortions are moral; historically forbidden relationships are protected & promoted, while Christians are now being called "terrorists." We are now "calling evil good and good evil."

From where I sit, I foresee all the 2016 election fever as a smoke screen, while this administration houses United Nation's troops in closed military bases; allows community organizers to riot in our streets, anticipating a backlash that will escalate to civil disobedience; requiring the implementing of martial law, and the cancellation of future elections.

Financially, our nation is on the verge of total collapse & international laws will soon be obligating the U.S. to ban all private firearms.

There are incredible, indescribable devastations being predicted, which will kill millions of people, while church membership is plummeting at an unprecedented rate around the world. Homes and families are being shattered with the typical churches tacit theological approval. (The new Pope just declared the marriage annulment procedure must be made more efficient & we must reconsider past attitudes about divorced and remarried couples.

When Jesus spoke to Peter to "feed my sheep and lambs." He didn't explain to him how to avoid all of these things, He only asked one question three times: Peter, do you LOVE ME?

Nothing else matters! If you love the Lord as you should, none of these other things will move you. You will be “Looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of your faith.” If you are expending all your energy fighting all of these inequities and seeming disasters, you might miss what Jesus said to the young man in Luke 9; when Jesus asked him to “come, follow Me.” His response to Jesus was, he only wanted “to go home first and bury his father.” Jesus gave this young man a new priority. “Let the dead bury their dead, but go thou and preach the Gospel.”

Many today are discouraged, and are starting to look back at the “good old days” when there were massive revivals, and churches were growing and multiplying.

We are living in a different environment which Jesus described as: “as it was in the days of Noah”= only 6 converts in 120 years; and “as it was in the days of Lot:” where not even 10 righteous could be found after all his years in Sodom and Gomorrah. When judgement was imminent, the angels had to throw Lot and his family out, so God could destroy the city. “So shall it be in the days of the coming of the Son of man.” Expect it, and don’t get discouraged! Don’t look back or “take your hand off the plow.” Luke 9. If we do take our hand off of the plow, or look back, “we are not fit for the Kingdom of God.” Why? Because, “if any man love the world, the love of the Father is NOT in him.”

Do you want peace in this storm? We can only experience it if we continue to preach the word till He comes. Don’t sit & soak & worry; preach; teach; “be instant in season and out of season. Exhort, rebuke with all longsuffering & doctrine TILL HE COMES.”

Are you a vital part of any end time ministry? When the Lord called me to this very unpopular ministry I didn’t know of but one other ministry teaching this truth, except in Canada. Today God has raised up at least 50-60 new voices to declare this covenant marriage ministry. Several were spawned out of the 2006 national conference, because someone had the vision to underwrite free scholarships for any pastors interested in attending.

We must remember, Noah never became discouraged about preaching for 120 years with only his family to show for it. The RESULTS of our preaching is not what is important. To love Christ and show it by being a vital part of what Christ is interested in declaring to the world & church today is to “occupy till He comes.”

The Lord is now extending CPR influences around the world via being online with Amazon and our materials are now downloadable onto “Kindle” tablets. Let everyone know they can download & read all of our books for $2.99, instead of $12.95 and $13.95. Help us get this teaching around the world by letting everyone on your email or your church members know how they can now afford to purchase our materials and share them with everyone.

Some of you might want to purchase a download for your youth workers, pastors & missionaries.

Why should we do this? Because the lover of our souls told us to “preach the Word” and never quit. This will be a way to be “salt, light” to everyone you know.

May we also encourage each of you to visit our website as many times as possible, and ask your friends to do the same, since it will raise our standing among the marriage and divorce sites and be more accessible to anyone seeking information about marriage and divorce. This is one inexpensive way you can help us have a greater outreach around the world and reach many more people seeking counsel about marriage and divorce. Please take the time to help us in this way. God bless!

Can you imagine how much it would profit each of us to spend some quiet time thinking about this very important question: Jesus is asking us: “Do you love me?”

May God bless you as you “seek first the kingdom of God,” and know; “ALL these things will be added unto you.”

Please let us hear from you if this message was a blessing to you. In the meantime: “Look up for your redemption draweth nigh.”

HUMILITY IS NOT THINKING LESS OF YOURSELF; IT'S THINKING OF YOURSELF LESS.

Letters & Notes

Dear Dr. Webb

After 17yrs of marriage there have been numerous times that my husband has wandered away emotionally & physically too! Dishonesty, inappropriate management of finances, indifference; and unreliability in times of need, and physical abuse is what I have experienced time and again in this relationship. But each time, I screamed in anger, wept my heart out, spoke in a calm way....and in 2010, I even contacted a lawyer for divorce, with an inability to bear the first evidenced act of adultery!! As I was serious about the separation, he did not want our 13yr old daughter to witness this and together we agreed to send her to a boarding school while we sort out the mess. Well, yes she went and he promised to mend his ways, and I forgave, but after a while he continued to do it again... nothing, nothing really changed! He lost his job in a couple of years not for non-performance but for “bad work attitude”.

In a few months he found a job in another country and we decided to relocate. He insisted on bringing our daughter back from the boarding school, much against her wishes, as she was happy being there, promising her the same. His lifestyle however, has remained the same ever since!! While I held a good job in our earlier place of residence, I suggested that I continue there for a while until the school term ends and then my daughter & I could both make it at the same time. He insisted that I had to move quickly! So, I obeyed and made the move....leaving family, friends and loads of well-wishers that I had gathered over the 15yrs of living there!! With a heavy heart I travelled on a long flight and as I landed early morning in the new place, hoping to see him after a month. The man was not there!! Even my calls were not answered!! As I was aware of the address, I took a cab and made my way to our new home!! Such was the first experience here.

After quarrelling over it, although deep down I felt he was with a woman who he had picked up, I chose to put it behind me and start afresh in this new country. But, such detestable actions continued to thrive under lies.....saying there were official dinners, networking meetings etc etc.

About 3 weeks ago, he told us that he was going to meet one of his ex-colleagues who was in town and then returned home at 6 am. Being very suspicious, after he fell asleep, I checked for receipts that may be there from the evening, and I found them....over $ 1000 spent in 3 different places, which are the top places for picking up women, with the last one being the Marriott hotel where he had checked into the room!!

While I have been faithful to this marriage, devoted to the family, offering financial support by working, being careful with the finances by spending only as required, even doing all the domestic work with absolutely no help from him.....I just don't have what it takes to stay in this marriage any longer!! Not that I hate him, but when there is no love, no respect, no care.....over a period of time, from his end; despite the wakeup call in 2010 over the draft of divorce or with his loss of job that came in as a shock to him, and the reason given was even worse.....he has just continued to live in sin through it all, by choice.

All through this, it is needless to say that I would not have ever survived without God's abundant Grace and the love He has poured out into my heart, which enabled me to love my husband, despite whatever happened!! The question now is, does God really want me to stay in this marriage? Is it His plan for my life? While my repeated forgiving acts never changed this man, will it do now? Our daughter has witnessed violent outbursts from him over me in her early days and is aware that her parents' relationship is a lot different to those in our families. So, will my subservient attitude in these conditions, send out the right message to our daughter? Will my staying on do any good to her wellbeing? In the past, when caught in these situations, he has woven a web of lies.....and easily continued to lead the same life again and even now. After our last conversation, he has spoken nothing of who he went out with. How often has this been happening? Is it a full on relationship or only sexual acts? What will his next course of action be? Should we see a counsellor to make this marriage work again?

Please help me. Blessings, J

ANSWER: Dear J;

I am not sure how you chose me to tell your story, but my heart goes out to you for the violent violations of the covenant marriage you have endured.

My first suggestion is to give you a scriptural foundation upon which to make each and every decision you have to make in the days ahead. What I think or what you think is not sufficient for these kind of quality decisions that will be necessary to make.

Please; for your own sake and confident assurance; order both of my books and study them. I will assure you, they do not have any personal opinions in them; but consistent biblical standards that will allow you to move forward with a confidence that God is for you, and not against you. If you become convinced what scripture says, and act on that; you will have peace and confidence through this struggle.

Second: Please, read Luke 14:25-35 several times and ask yourself if this is where you truly are in your walk with the Lord. Is He truly Lord and Master of your life? Does Christ and His will supersede every other consideration in your life? If not, why not? Until you settle this question, every other decision will only consist of an opinion, and not a biblical conviction.

Once you have studied both books: "Till Death Do Us Part?" and "Divorce and Remarriage, The Trojan Horse Within The Church;" then write me again and we will talk on the phone. If we do it any other way, we will spend hours just trying to get on the same page scripturally, to be able to explain your scripturally allowed considerations.

The books can be ordered from www.cpr-ministries.org. Then hit the bookstore tab. If you would rather be taught by DVD, you can order our six DVD set, with power point teaching for you and any other friends you might wish, to find the clear Bible teaching concerning your present situation. Hundreds of couples who thought they understood what scripture taught, were stunned, and now that they have obeyed His word; have found the verse: "You shall know the truth, and the truth will set you free." to be absolutely true. For awhile it might make you miserable, but in the end it will produce the "fruit of righteousness in those who believe and obey it."

No one should have to put up with what this man has been doing to you, and your daughter needs to see how wrong conduct has consequences.

Just know; God has seen EVERYTHING and promises to keep us in the midst of the storm. He is not mad at you, but His desire is to take your "mess" and eventually turn it into a ministry.

After going through all of these trials and trusting Him to keep you and guide you; The Lord will be able to use you for His glory. But please; apply Luke 14: 25-35 to every one of the trials you are experiencing now and know it is God working in you "to will, and to do of His good pleasure." If you fail to believe this; the enemy will be at the door to turn you away from "Truth" to "men's misguided ideas and doctrines of demons.

Thank you again for writing. I trust you will not be just a "hearer" of the word; but a "DOER."

In Christ; Dr. Joseph Webb

RE: Divorce Exception Clause.

Dear brother E.;

Thank you for the very definitive E-mail you sent on Aug. 5. In it you did not mention if you have read either of my books. I have gone into much detail concerning the differences between Pornia and Moichia. I have also explained why one who has entered into a "Covenant marriage: i.e., "For better or worse; till death do us part." must be ready to forgive their errant partner; IF he/she truly repents and agrees to abide by the original covenant promises from now on. This is enforced by "forgive us our trespasses, EVEN AS we forgive those who trespass against us." "If you do not forgive your brother or sister who has trespassed against you; NEITHER will your Heavenly Father forgive you." They do not deserve unmerited forgiveness, but neither did we when we came to the Cross, but God did wash all our sins away, "Never to be remembered against us again."

The confusion experienced when studying this issue is because men today are turning away from the truth," to MEN'S MISGUIDED IDEAS and DOCTRINES OF DEVILS," to accommodate the present day bent of our theological seminaries. This all started in the 40's when women began working in the ordinance plants of America, while their husbands were overseas, in WW II. Many of these women sent "Dear John" letters to their husbands when they found someone else working with them, who seemed more exciting. After the war, these same men and women came home and began to marry a second partner. Few of them went to church, out of embarrassment, until evangelistic meetings came along and these people were invited to attend. At that time, many went forward and it caused consternation in the church ranks. "What can we do with them? We can't treat them like second class citizens." (My question is: why not treat them like unrepentant sinners, who need to understand the necessity of facing their sins and "turn from your wicked ways?") Finally, the Billy Graham Association decided: "You cannot UNSCRAMBLE EGGS." This was convenient HUMANISM that caught fire in the churches. Why wouldn't a pastor be thrilled to have these people in their congregations? They came early, stayed late; gave unselfishly, washed the pastor's car, babysat his children etc. They did all of this to try to rid themselves of the "shame of adultery." Scripture tells us: "The shame of Adultery NEVER LEAVES." They thought if they just worked harder and read many of the newest books on the subject they could feel peace. The problem with that solution is, it is not a solution at all, because shame is not in the mind, but in the Spirit. God's only solution to this condition, is to REPENT: Admit your sin, and QUIT it; not ignore it and hope it will go away. God says: Proverbs 28:13: "He that COVERETH his sins shall not prosper, but he that CONFESSETH AND FORSAKETH THEM, shall have MERCY."

PRAISE REPORTS:

A NEW DOOR HAS OPENED IN BOGATA, COLUMBIA, S.A.

CPR sent a box of books to a dear sister who desires to spread the "Covenant Marriage" message in South America. JAW

Dear Pastor Joseph,

If God be for us, who can be against us? Yesterday Alix and I spent most of an hour on the phone trying to track the package of Seed you had sent. Remember, they had said it would cost $180 plus dollars to get it out of customs.

Today somebody arrived at the gate and handed the box over to us...SCOTT FREE!

We laughed and rejoiced and prayed over the precious box of books, and thanked the Lord for you.. My faith also grew up a few notches! I rejoice, deeply, to have this tiny investment in this ministry that has so blessed me, us, and will be blessing many more couples and families for the first time in South America. Counting on your prayers!!

P.S. (My brave friend here in Bogota, has hired a carpenter to divide her home, so that she would no longer be living in adultery. She will be left in charge of half the books when I go on to Venezuela. We are planning to normally only lend them out; not give them. Pray for the recipients...We are rejoicing to the point of hilarity.....B.

NOTE: This precious sister also found a pastor whose heart was prepared to receive this message, and he has declared he feels the Lord was calling him to spread this message throughout Columbia. JAW

Praise: A PASTOR from Uganda, Africa, E-mailed me to announce how the Spirit of God has done a work of grace in his heart. He said he read both books: came under deep conviction, because he was living with a divorced woman. He repented, and took this woman back to her covenant partner; begging his forgiveness for violating their covenant. He then said the Lord was: "Putting it in his heart to spread this message across Uganda. He stated the divorce rate in Uganda was comparatively low, but the influence of American evangelists was influencing the Church negatively concerning the marriage covenant being in effect until death" Pray for him! JAW

Special Announcement:

C.P.R. Ministries has gone worldwide! Both of our books, in English and Spanish are now available Online, through Amazon/Kindle, for a fraction of the former cost. We also have "Print On Demand" service for those who want a hard copy of any of the books. Presently, we also now have over 40 CD teachings on many subject, and hope to eventually have 140 available as the Lord provides.

Now you can notify everyone on your E-mail list, how they can order a book or CD, without shipping and handling costs, or you can give them to others for much less of an investment than before.

YOU can now help our outreach of this message exponentially, if you will invest the time to inform your friends of this new service, and if you will visit our Website on a regular basis for the next several weeks. I know this will temporarily be time consuming, but if many of you will make the effort, our ratings will rise rapidly and anyone looking for a source of information about marriage and divorce will find our Website close to the top of possible sources. If you will help us in this, it will introduce this ministry to an unprecedented number of people around the world.

Thank you for your consideration to help us in this very important project. We believe we are "Laborers together in His harvest field."
May God bless us in this outreach endeavor.

Joe and Pat

Recommendations:

Many of you will remember Dr. Mike Gorrie, B.TH; D.D., from New Zealand. This brother was one of the main speakers at our 2006 National Marriages For Life Conference, in Orlando, FL.

Since that conference, Mike and I have continued to fellowship and work together to get this truth out around the world.

Dr Gorrie always manifested the gift of "encouragements." Every time we spoke, I would go away lifted up in my spirit, because of his constant ability to get you to get your eyes off of your problems and on the faithfulness of the Lord. I truly miss this brother.

Mike recently was called home to be with the Lord, after a battle with cancer throughout his body. This condition did not change his attitude in any way. He would always praise the Lord and say, "My tail is wagging."

While experiencing this attack on his body, Mike kept telling me he had a message burning in his heart that he needed to write before he left this world. With great effort and conviction, Mike finished his manuscript, and it is now available online through Amazon, and at Barnes and Nobel. When you read it, you will sense the urgency he felt, and the clarity of thought he exhibited, to challenge this generation to a new level of holiness in Christ.

As you read the book, please pray for Mike's wife of over 53 years; Marion. Although Mike is with his Lord, he is still speaking to this generation, and many to come. The book is titled: "...And Five Were Foolish."

Praise: In September Salem Broadcasting invited 400 local pastors from the Orlando area, to a "Thank you Brunch." We asked permission to set up a table in their display area so we could give the pastors free books. They provided a booth for us and we handed out approximately eight cases of books, free. Many pastors asked for additional books for all of their Elders. Please pray the Lord will produce MUCH fruit! We will continue to seek out other such avenues, as the Lord provides.

We would also like to recommend you pray for our Brother Marlin Docter. This dear brother has been a true soldier of Jesus Christ; partnering with C.P.R. to get the covenant marriage truth distributed. This brother has walked through the fire for over thirty years, standing for his marriage and raising four children by himself. Several years ago a friend asked Marlin if he would like to drive to Indiana, for a marriage conference, being conducted by some fellow named Dr. Webb. He and three others attended. When they were driving back; Marlin; who had been a very successful area director of another ministry, said the Lord told him to "resign from the other ministry, and work with C.P.R. He immediately resigned, and has been a great witness in the Midwest; conducting his own marriage seminars, and gathering around him, a following of others, convinced of this truth. Marlin has produced several very effective products to teach this truth to others. The Lord has now laid on Marlin's heart to buy Bibles and mark every verse people should know about concerning the divorce issue; while putting an index in the front of the same Bibles. The response has been very positive! Based on the Biblical principal of 2 Tim 2:2. This marked Bible has the potential of reaching the masses above the thousands presently being disciplined. If you would like to encourage this Man of God who has stood for his covenant marriage for almost thirty years, contact him at 515-987-7069, 1650 SE Holiday Crest Circle, Suite 308 Waukee, Iowa 50263.
