Letters & Notes

Hello Joseph,

I married my 'Christian' wife, before a Judge, on my traded lunch hour. My boss wouldn't give me a day off to get married. I guess that should have been a clue, when I look back. She had been out with other guys and been intimate. I forgave her and thought marriage would make a difference. She then ended up seducing me; no sex. I truly loved her and still do.

I believed, as was taught by the church, that marriage is a permanent covenant. Over a lifetime; thirty nine years of marriage; she cheated a couple dozen times. I forgave her each time and amazingly was able to forget about it until it happened again. We prayed about generational sinning. She said once: "I am a Christian, sitting on the fence, leaning out".

Four years ago (today that makes it forty three years since we married) she left and has gone from "boyfriend" to "boyfriend".

She appears to want to trip up men. She would always 'hit on' my male friends. One boyfriend sought me out a couple of years ago and told me he felt she had "used" him.

I used to get upset with her when she appeared to be taking an extra amount of interest in other men; which often did end up in an affair. She would shrug it off. She recently told me: "You made a mistake when you married me; I'm a whore".

I pray for her daily; I want her truly saved. Eternity is a long time. Is there something I can do, in the spiritual battle, that will turn the tide? If you can give me an answer that would be appreciated. May our Heavenly Father bless you richly,
DL

DL;

I don't know how you found this ministry, but it is amazing to know how many others find themselves in the same situation as you, and they are desperately seeking a solution, or escape from their nightmare. I don't know anything about you, or how much you have searched out teaching on the permanence of a covenant marriage; but the Lord does have a clear answer; if we are willing to hear it.

In Jeremiah 3, God the Father tells us He is "married to Israel," who had committed whoredoms and adulteries against Him over and over. God finally gave Israel a certificate of divorce. But immediately following those verses, God says: "If you (Israel) will only REPENT, I will take you back, because you are STILL my wife."

In I cor. 6:16; Paul tells us, "He which is joined (married) to a harlot is ONE BODY. for two saith He shall be ONE FLESH." Your wife is not BREAKING her covenant with you, over and over. Unless she repents, she will experience eternal judgement. I Cor. 6:8-10; Galatians 5:19-21; Hebrews 13:4.

I would like to encourage you, to go online to Amazon, and seek out Kindle. You will find both of my books available to be downloaded and it will give you a complete study of all verses pertaining to this subject and the necessity of genuine repentance.

You will learn how the marriage message was changed several hundred years ago, and the devastating results we are experiencing in the Church today. After you read them, please contact me again and we can talk and answer any questions you might still have.

Your patience with your wife is truly incredible! Remain faithful to the Lord, and He will bless you. He can take this MESS and make it into a message and a ministry.

The two books are: "Till Death Do Us Part? and Divorce and Remarriage, The Trojan Horse Within The Church." The prices are very affordable, and information is exactly what you need at this time.

Thank you again for inquiring. May God richly bless and keep you. In His Service; Dr. Joseph A. Webb/ President of, Christian Principles Restored Ministries International, Inc.

Dr. Webb

Thank you for digitizing your formats, posting your newsletter online in pdfs and putting TDDUP?, into audio and video form. I have been nearly deaf, blind and mute for seventeen years from a traumatic brain injury, the bends, and radiation poisoning.

Your book is truth! I have been separated from my covenant wife and son for 27 years, yet I have remained faithful. I knew the moment I read your book, after coming out of a coma; that it was total verification and vindication. The Holy Spirit had taught me these things and kept them in my heart all these years; though bedridden.

I moved to another state, expecting to die in a hospice environment among the Mennonites. They are very dear people and totally in line with God's word on marriage and divorce. However, they have no patience for my illness! They want me to rise at dawn and work till dusk! So, Satan is still buffeting me indirectly as a result of my testimony. Galatians 6:17.

It gave me great hope the other day to speak to a dear, believing couple who live in this area, and who have spoken with you. Dr. Webb, this couple and I have faithfully distributed your book over the years. For many years I have also distributed an audio CD version of the mp3 on Steven Wilcox's site, as well as Bev's radio show to many in Harvard University and in the Boston area.

God bless you( and your staff) so richly for your labors and faithfulness!!!!Best Regards,

PV

Dear Dr. Joseph,

The importance of your ministry - the spiritual impact for the Kingdom of God is very evident. I am honored that you would take time to speak with me.

The best time to speak would be during the hours of 10am - 3pm Mountain Standard Time, Monday through Wednesday (this is a short week due to Christmas). I am an Administrative Assistant at my church and would have complete freedom to speak to you at work. I want to be respectful and compassionate to my husband. If this week works for you, please designate the time which is most convenient for you and I'll be ready.

Again, thank you for your time. My heart is so hungry for obedience to all of Jesus' words.

Blessings,

NJ

Dear NJ;
I apologize for not getting back to you sooner, but our counseling load has been very heavy during this time of the year. We are a small ministry trying to minister to needs all over the world. We are so grateful to be used in this capacity since there are so few voices declaring this truth in comparison to the needs out there.

Maybe we can facilitate answering your questions more quickly by having you send me, by return E-mail, your phone number. I will call you right away and try to guide you to the appropriate scriptures concerning your present situation.

I will await your phone number and when would be the most advantageous time to call. God bless..

Joseph A. Webb
josephwebb@cpr-ministries.org

Dear Pastor Webb,
First of all, thank you for your ministry! I have read your books and appreciate you very much. I have been in this second relationship now for 13 years. My covenant spouse and I divorced many years ago. Last year I realized that there was no such thing as an "escape clause" or exception clause regarding my divorce.

I now am very convinced by the Holy Spirit that this present relationship is adultery - and I need to leave it. The man I am living with now loves me very much. I love him too, but I've known in my heart I don't belong to him for quite a few years. When I seriously looked at this issue last summer, and showed this man the verses of Scripture, he commented that he could not argue with it. We have refrained from relations since last summer. He does not want us to part. I have no idea how to go about this very painful process. I have been crying out to the Lord to help us - to make a way for us to part that is compassionate and leading to life.

Do you have any words of guidance? I would greatly appreciate any advice or thoughts you have.

By the way, I talked with three of the pastors in my church - associates. They thought I was putting myself "under the law." Only the senior pastor really "heard" me and even had repented to a couple he wrongly married. I know he knows the truth. It is so very difficult when half of your church body is in adulterous relationships. Yikes!! I'm praying for the leadership of my church.

Thank you so much for your thoughts and most importantly prayers!!!> Sincerely, N. J.

Dear NJ;
Thank you for your reply.
This is probably the busiest time of the year for both of us but I would have some time tomorrow at 12:30 PM, your time; which will be 2:30 PM, E.S.T. for me.
We at C.P.R. are always thrilled to find those few in the world today who mean it when they say; "Jesus is Lord." If this is agreeable to you, I will speak with you then.
God bless and keep you.
Dr. Joseph Webb

// Dear Dr. Joseph,

Thank you so much!! 12:30pm is perfect. I will await your call. I can only imagine how swamped you must be. I don't have words to tell you what this means to me. I am crying out to the Lord every day to lead in this situation. Your wise counsel will be so greatly appreciated!

Blessings, NJ

.Dear Brother Webb & Pat;

I received your newsletter after our talk this morning, and have re-read it carefully.

I have the need to congratulate you on the preciseness of your answers. The Newsletter is so very powerful. I wish I could share it with my friend and my pastors, but in my spirit I know they are not in a place where they can receive or tolerate such direct truth. So sad.

I guess Jesus warned us about not doing that with our "pearls." THIS NEWSLETTER IS A PEARL!
R.J.

Quotes by Evangelist Leonard Ravenhill: (1907-1994) -

Evangelist and Bible Teacher

1. "A popular evangelist reaches your emotions. A true prophet reaches your conscience."

2. The last word of Jesus to the Church (in revelation) was "REPENT."

3. "There are only two kinds of persons: those dead in sin and those dead TO sin."

4. "If a Christian is not having tribulation in the world, there's something wrong."

5. "If Jesus had preached the same message that the majority of preachers preach today, He never would have been crucified."

6. "If the Whole Church goes off into deception, that will in no way excuse us for not following Jesus Christ."

7. "The Bible is absolute or it is obsolete."

8. "Why do we expect to be treated better in this world than Jesus Was?"

9. "My main ambition in life is to be on the Devil's 'Most wanted list.'"

10. "When there is something in the Bible that churches don't like, they call it 'legalism.'"

11. "We must do what we CAN do for God, before He will give us the power to do what we CAN'T do."

12. "Our seminaries today are turning out dead men."

13. "How can you pull down strongholds of Satan if you don't even have the strength to turn off your TV?"

14. "Everyone recognizes that Stephen was Spirit-filled when he was performing wonders. Yet, he was just as Spirit-filled when he was being stoned to death."

Report concerning status of C.P.R. Ministries International, Inc. in 2016.

In 1951, I told my father the Lord had led me to go away to Bible College, to serve Him the rest of my life.

This announcement disturbed my father greatly. His response to me was: "If you are going to go off and become a begging preacher, don't ever come back here looking for any help, because I won't do anything to help you."

At the time I was a very young Christian, living in a non-Christian home environment. I didn't know what to do. I went up to my room and prayed for wisdom from the Lord concerning this matter. Then I began reading my Bible. After a few moments I found a verse I never knew existed. Ps. 27:10: "When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up."

Then and there, as a very young, new Christian, I unknowingly made a covenant with the Lord. I said: "Father, I believe you are telling me to go away to study in this Christian school, although every part of me resists. You know how much I hated school, and you know I said I never wanted to darken the door of another school. Lord; What I want is totally irrelevant at this time. I know this urge to go to this Christian school was not born in me; it was not my idea; nor the devil's. So since it came from You, I know I must obey. I have no idea how it can ever work, since I have virtually no funds to go. Again; this fact is irrelevant; because when I was baptized, I declared I died with you, and have risen only to follow wherever you lead me. Therefore, I choose to obey your leading and I expect you to be my Jehovah Jireh (The Lord who provides). From now on, I choose to make You my total source. Your promise says: "My God SHALL supply ALL my needs, according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." When I read this, I said; "Lord, I believe! I make You and You alone, to be my total source, in all things." I have heard: "The arm of flesh will fail; but You cannot fail." "My God is able to do exceeding, abundantly above all I can ask or think." "Nothing is too difficult for Thee." I therefore submit and declare I will make You, and You alone my total source in all things, from this day forward."

At that moment, I didn't realize I had just made covenant with the Lord concerning my life. Almost immediately, He began to show Himself strong in my behalf. That covenant was established in 1951, and my God has shown Himself faithful to me in every facet of my life. He has answered prayers in miraculous ways for the past 64 years, and made the impossible, possible over and over.

Because of this covenant, my years of ministry have been full of miracles; physical, emotional, financial and spiritual. Space will not allow me to elaborate on this fact, except to say, in all of the years of C.P.R. Ministries, I have never looked to man for my resources. I have felt obligated to remind those of like convictions, God calls men to a ministry and calls others to support those callings. If I find someone called to a ministry I believe is important, and I strongly believe that same message; I must ask the Lord what He would have me to do to support and encourage those who have been called into that special message and ministry.

Jesus Christ himself, had a group of women who Luke 8:1-3 were identified as those; "which ministered unto Him of their substance."

Do you suppose they did this because Jesus demanded it of them? Did He require it of them? Or did they support His ministry, because they experienced a direct benefit from His ministry, and thus, they felt should participate in the spreading of this teaching of truth?

Can you imagine what their reward will be when they stand before Him? Everything Jesus accomplished, will be credited to their account! WOW!

Do you suppose Jesus could have covered His expenses in another way? Do you suppose He would have gone broke and had to quit ministering, had these ladies ever gotten tired of supporting His ministry? Of course not. He just gave them the privilege to participate in His calling.

In Philippians 4, Paul reinforces this same truth. He said there was a time when none of the churches communicated with him, except the Philippian church; who supported his calling time and again; not because Paul begged them to, but because they recognized the Biblical pattern of ministry calling and ministry being supported.

Did Paul demand anything? Did he beg anyone? NO! Paul waited for the Church to recognize their calling, and to respond when they were convinced their support of Paul's ministry was as important as Paul's ministry itself. Did Paul tell them their giving would enrich himself? Did Paul receive the gifts as to him personally, or to his calling? Note Phil. 4:17: "Not because I desire a gift: but I desire FRUIT that shall continue to (My account? NO!) to YOUR ACCOUNT."

What did Paul tell the believers would be the result of THEIR OBEDIENCE? Vs. 19: "But my God shall supply all of (MY needs? NO!) all of YOUR NEEDS according to His riches in glory, by Christ Jesus."

Today, when someone is called to teach a hard doctrine, and tries to inform those of "like faith" and conviction, concerning the present state of said ministry; they are accused of "begging." They immediately compare that ministry to an orphanage ministry of over 100 years ago, where the leader never told ANYONE of their needs and saw God work miracles continuously in their behalf.

While thoroughly admiring such faith, may I say, it is much easier to get people to be burdened for orphans, than confronting adulterers and promoters of adultery in Churches today. These groups would rather block any avenue you might find to teach your doctrine, and discredit you in any way possible. I recently read in a Christian magazine how radio and television ministries are being approached by orphanage ministries and told to promote feeding orphans. When told they are too busy, they are told; "you won't have to do anything; we will do it all and all you have to do is have pictures of your team feeding children, and we will do the rest. Be assured, all of your ministry needs will be met very quickly."

How many former evangelistic ministries do you know of today who have opened a side ministry of feeding orphans? The conclusion of the article said; "Check to see what percentage of the monies raised to feed children, actually go to feeding children, and what percentage to administrative fees."

We at C.P.R. ministries KNOW our calling and have had to learn how to get around countless roadblocks put before us to keep going. The ONLY reason we are still here is because our God has continued to manifest Himself by financial miracles, through those who know the importance of making this truth known, and "recognize the Lord has called them to enable this message to continue to be declared. If you do not believe this message is God's solution for broken families today; that it is not a deep, vital, and necessary message, totally consistent with all of God's word; you definitely should feel no urging or prompting by the Holy Spirit to support those called to declare this message; it would be SIN for you to give anything to promote this calling.

Even though we have succeeded to declare this message for over 30 years, and seen thousands of families restored; This is not enough. We also have a responsibility to instruct those He has called to support this ministry, how their giving does not prosper us; but allows those CALLED to be a blessing, to be BLESSED, and to EXPECT God's reward to be proportionate to their level of faithfulness to their "calling."

Our calling to teach this truth includes the responsibility of teaching believers of like conviction, to get serious about why God has placed you where you are and given you the convictions you have. Many today are 'Christian spectators' and not participants. Many seem to be waiting to see how long a ministry can last before they succumb to social pressure.

C.P.R. has been operating for over 30 years now and weathered every storm we have encountered, because of the mature, scripturally enlightened believers of like faith, the Lord has “called” them to hold up our hands. These believers are JUST as important to this ministry as we are. Their giving is not to enrich us in any way. Their giving is an act of conviction and obedience to their calling, and will be rewarded accordingly.

Pat and I would not want ANYONE to send ONE PENNY to this ministry, if the giver was not led by the Holy Spirit to send it. We only operate with what the Lord provides. Believe us when we say, we would be much more aggressive in our outreach if the necessary finances were here. We refuse to operate in debt, to accomplish what God has called us to do. Our partners are NOT OUR SOURCE: God is! Their giving must ALWAYS be in response to His leading. “Our God is able to supply all our need, according to His riches in Glory, by Christ Jesus.” (But He will ALWAYS USE PEOPLE!) Not because we beg them to, but because they recognize they are called to support a specific called ministry, faithfully. Some call it “giving” while Jesus and Paul called it “investing;” where thieves cannot break through and steal.”

Down through the years of this ministry I have had thousands of people tell me; “I pay MY TITHES every week.”

Because of my prophetic calling I always try to balance their statement by saying: “If it is YOUR tithe: KEEP IT. The Bible says:” Lev. 27:30. All the tithe is the Lord's, and it is holy unto the Lord. Verse 32 says that this tithe is the tenth part, which is holy unto the

Lord. ALL the tithe IS THE LORD'S”

How can it possibly be “your tithe” if when you believed in Jesus Christ, you became his (doulos= bond slave); which means, We OWN NOTHING. Then, if we prove ourselves to be faithful to the Lord, He elevates us to be His “steward.” Such persons acknowledge everything they hold in their hands belong to Him. I Cor. 4:2; “Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found FAITHFUL.”=STEADFAST.

If this is true of any of us; then we do not pay OUR TITHE; but we RETURN HIS TITHE.” Wherever He directs us to invest what He has blessed us with. In fact, the word of God tells us if we don't return His tithes and offerings; we are “thieves and robbers.” Question: If you and I own nothing: and we support a ministry; what have YOU GIVEN? Nothing: If it truly is His. You are handling the “talents” the Lord entrusted to you. You have the responsibility to pray and ask the Great Shepherd how He wants you to distribute HIS POSSESSIONS. If you distribute ANYTHING, without His permission; you are not a “faithful steward.”

I truly pray, when those who read this teaching, finally understand this biblical concept, they will not give one penny to ANY ministry, without the Holy Spirit's approval. Even if that means some of you no longer give to C.P.R. Ministries! No one should ever give through pressuring from any ministry. II Cor. 9:6-8: “But this I say, He

which soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly, and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; NOT GRUDGINGLY, OR OF NECESSITY; for God loveth a CHEERFUL GIVER. Another version says, “The Lord loves a Hilarious giver.” And God is able to make ALL GRACE abound toward you; that ye ALWAYS, having ALL sufficiency in ALL things, may ABOUND UNTO EVERY GOOD WORK.”

As an insight as to why this truth needs to be declared to believers today, a recent survey of Evangelical churches in the U.S.A. revealed approximately 17% of present day church members return a tithe every week to the Lord, and sense no fear of scriptural warnings concerning what God expects from every one of His children. Mal. 3:8,9; “Will a man rob God? Yet YE HAVE ROBBED ME. But ye say, wherein have we robbed thee? In TITHES AND OFFERINGS, YE ARE CURSED WITH A CURSE: for YE have ROBBED ME, even this whole nation.”

It will be an interesting experience to see the response to this message. Some will assume I am begging for monies, and others will think I have quit preaching and started meddling. Jesus said it this way: “And this is condemnation, that LIGHT has come into the world, and men LOVE DARKNESS, rather than LIGHT; BECAUSE their deeds are evil; neither cometh to the light, lest their deeds be reproved.”

I am saying all of this so you will know where my faith lies; and know my calling is to enlighten all believers, NOT by telling them what they want to hear; but to tell them what the Word of God has to say on THE VITAL SUBJECT OF stewardship, as it relates to THE MARRIAGE COVENANT.

In every church where I served, I always told the congregation: 'Don't ever worry about me calling an evangelist to come and tell you what you need to know about scriptural principles; regardless of how disturbing they might be. I will tell you myself; because God has called me to declare the "Whole counsel of God, without fear or favor.' My responsibility is to TEACH; yours is to learn and obey His voice. Remember: "You shall KNOW the TRUTH, and the TRUTH will set you free."(not bring you into financial bondage.)

For the first time in over 30 years; C.P.R. finished 2015 with a, $25,000.00 deficit. This is not a catastrophe: but an opportunity to seek what the Lord is saying to us, at this time.

Yes, many who have been supporting C.P.R. for most of the thirty years have been called home, and we miss them and their continuous encouragement. Their demise reminds us HE is our total source! Others have stood and excitedly supported this message until the price was too high. One couple, who once believed the covenant marriage message, said: "Our pastor said this message is legalism; and we have to believe someone; so we chose to believe Him."

I wanted to say:"Be sure to have that pastor close to you at the Judgment Seat of Christ, to help you explain this new conviction you arrived at; by accepting non-biblical opinions, in place of the eternal, unchangeable Word of God." Psalm 12:6 "The words of the Lord are PURE words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, PURIFIED SEVEN TIMES." (Another translation says: "He speaks NO CARELESS WORD: all He says is PUREST TRUTH."

Some will ask: "What are you going to do about the deficit?"

Nothing! Except pray and ask the Lord for direction. Remember; this is NOT my ministry. It is my calling! Jesus said; "My sheep hear my voice, and they follow me." Pat and I are sincerely asking the Lord for wisdom for the days ahead. The ministry doesn't need us; or we the ministry. We only need Him, and His guidance for today. Please pray He will make our next step plain to us and if He wants you to be a part of what He has called us to accomplish.

This situation does not knock God off of His throne. He is still "Lord of Lords and King of Kings; and the Captain of the Armies of Heaven." "Is ANYTHING TOO HARD FOR HIM? Please pray with us that He might make His will very clear for 2016.

What did we accomplish in 2015?

1. We had both books translated and printed into Spanish.
2. We have placed both books and approximately 50 Cd's and DVD's on Amazon and Kindle, making them available worldwide, for the first time ever, over the Internet.

3. We conducted conferences and seminars in several states and have counselled hundreds of couples and individuals around the world on the phone and by Internet E-mail, about 'Covenant Marriage' truth.
4. We distributed over $20,000.00 in free books, CD's and DVD's to many ministries and individuals who are proclaiming this truth in the U.S. and other countries.
5. We provided free printed materials and DVD seminars to over 200 pastors and their officers, without cost, challenging more men of God to consider the seriousness of this truth.
6. We have downsized our home and office space, to reduce expenses and to streamline our outreach.
7. We have received notice from pastors in other nations, how God has called them to make this truth known to their nation.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

1. Wisdom and understanding of God's will for the days ahead.
2. The ability to "rest in the Lord and wait patiently for Him." "Without FAITH, it is IMPOSSIBLE TO please the Lord."
3. Direction for transportation needs. The ministry has had two automobiles {15 years old and 13 years old, respectively) whose upkeep have been a financial drain on the ministry's resources in 2015. Note: I have always told the Lord, "I will drive this vehicle until the wheels drop off, if that is what you want." I only want what you want." He has graciously provided ministry vehicles for 45 years, and He has promised "to be our God, even when our hair is white; I will be your God to the end." Please pray with us that HE will give us wisdom in this matter. He is faithful!
4. When we first started this ministry, we could only find one other ministry like it in existence; that we knew about. Today, we are told there are in excess of 60 ministries declaring this truth.

Some of these were born out of our "Marriages For Life Conference" conducted in Orlando, FL, in 2006. Pray the Lord will continue to raise up more ministries in these last days.

5. Pray the Lord will raise up many new Spanish speaking ministries, who will find our books a helpful tool to establish a Spanish ministry, declaring the truth about "Covenant marriages."
6. Choice Books has recently purchased 800 Spanish books, in hopes of finding an interest in the marriage issue, among Spanish readers across the nation. Choice Books have book racks in businesses; including Walmart; hotels; restaurants; truck stops, etc., in most of our 50 states. Please pray the Lord will put a spirit of curiosity on those who visit their book racks. Pray the Lord will touch many families, who have never heard this truth before.

PRaise REPORTS:

1. We praise the Lord for every one of you who have stood with us through the storms for many years now. God has given us many "artesian wells, givers:" (Those who never need priming); but faithfully, sense their calling to always hold up our arms as we continue to do battle. To them, it is a CALLING! If we thank them; they will have already received their reward. Instead, we thank the Lord for them, and know He will reward them; "Pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall men give into their bosom."

2. We thank the Lord for our "prayer partners," Paul said to the believers in Rome: "Romans 15:30; "Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together (Do battle) with me, IN YOUR PRAYERS TO GOD FOR ME." Then Paul enumerates all the ministry phases he needed prayer about.

Please believe me when I say we desperately NEED your prayers for 2016. We don't want to do anything He doesn't want us to do, and we don't want to leave undone, anything He wants us to accomplish.

3. We thank the Lord because none of the experiences of 2015 happened without His total knowledge of it. It has been "Him, working in us to will and to do of His good pleasure." We are not stressed nor strained! We still believe "ALL THINGS work together for GOOD, to those who love the Lord; to those who are the called according to His purpose. We always look at times of testing, as a time of trusting. When Jesus spoke of Job; He didn't say: 'Remember Job's suffering.'" Instead; He said: "Remember the END OF JOB."

4. We thank the Lord for another year to "Occupy, till He comes." Not; QUIT!, Give up!, Cry!; but "Look up, for your redemption draweth nigh."

Let's believe God for a greater year than ever. When we PRAY, THINGS HAPPEN THAT WOULDN'T HAPPEN IF WE DIDN'T PRAY. We feel we are communicating with our FAMILY! If you do not feel any compulsion to be a part of this ministry, or a desire to pray how you could become a part of seeing our prayer requests answered; then you probably are not called to be a part of this calling, and should seek to see where He would have you labor in His harvest field.

God bless you.
